

You have $50 to spend on school supplies. Your task is to decide what items to buy and how much to save for future needs.

You have $100 to save for a class trip happening in three months. Your task is to create a savings plan to ensure you have enough money by the trip date.

You have $30 to spend on a fun activity for the weekend. Your task is to choose an activity and decide how to allocate the money.

Your group has earned $20 from a school fundraiser. Your task is to decide whether to spend it on a small celebration or save it for a bigger event.

You have $75 to spend on new clothes for the upcoming season. Your task is to decide how to allocate this money between different clothing items.

You have $60 to spend on a birthday gift for a friend. Your task is to decide what gift to buy and how much to save for other expenses.

Your group has been given $40 to decorate the classroom for a holiday. Your task is to decide what decorations to buy and how to manage the budget.

You have $25 to spend on snacks for a movie night. Your task is to decide what snacks to buy and how much to save for future movie nights.

You have $90 to spend on a new gadget or game. Your task is to decide what to buy and whether to save some money for future upgrades.

Your group has been given $50 to plan a small party. Your task is to decide how to allocate this money between food, decorations, and entertainment.

