

Create a PowerPoint slide summarizing the key phases of globalisation, including at least three major events.

Design a PowerPoint slide that explains how globalisation has impacted local cultures, using specific examples.

Develop a PowerPoint slide that outlines the pros and cons of globalisation, providing at least two points for each side.

Make a PowerPoint slide that highlights the role of technology in the process of globalisation, with relevant images and data.

Create a PowerPoint slide that describes the concept of global trade, including a brief history and its significance today.

Design a PowerPoint slide that shows the journey of a common product (like a smartphone or coffee) through the global supply chain.

Develop a PowerPoint slide that explains the ethical considerations related to globalisation, including labor practices and environmental impact.

Make a PowerPoint slide that compares the economies of two countries, showing how globalisation has affected them differently.

Create a PowerPoint slide that discusses the influence of globalisation on international relations and diplomacy.

Design a PowerPoint slide that presents a case study of a multinational corporation and its role in globalisation.

Develop a PowerPoint slide that explains the concept of cultural homogenization and provide examples of how it manifests in different parts of the world.

Make a PowerPoint slide that explores the impact of globalisation on education, including access to information and international student exchanges.

Create a PowerPoint slide that outlines the history of global trade agreements and their impact on globalisation.

Design a PowerPoint slide that discusses the role of international organizations (like the WTO or IMF) in globalisation.

Develop a PowerPoint slide that explains the impact of globalisation on the environment, including both positive and negative effects.

