

Brainstorm possible solutions for the following scenario

A small bakery is losing customers to a new competitor. What can they do to attract more customers?

Identify strengths and weaknesses in the following scenario

A local bookstore has a loyal customer base but struggles with online sales. What are their strengths and weaknesses?

Use a decision-making model to evaluate the following options

A tech company is deciding between investing in new software or expanding their marketing team. Which option should they choose and why?

Predict the outcome of the following solution

A restaurant decides to offer a new menu item to increase sales. What do you think will happen?

Perform a SWOT analysis on the following business

A local gym is considering opening a new location. What are the strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats?

Discuss and present a solution for the following problem

A clothing store is facing declining sales due to increased online shopping. What can they do to improve their sales?

Brainstorm possible solutions for the following scenario

A coffee shop is experiencing long wait times during peak hours. How can they reduce the wait time?

Identify opportunities and threats in the following scenario

A small tech startup is entering a market dominated by large companies. What opportunities and threats do they face?

Use a decision-making model to evaluate the following options

A school is deciding whether to invest in new technology for classrooms or hire more teachers. Which option should they choose and why?

Predict the outcome of the following solution

A grocery store decides to offer home delivery services to increase sales. What do you think will happen?

