

You will create a mock portfolio with five different stocks. Research each stock and explain why you chose it.

Your task is to write a brief report on a famous stock market crash, explaining its causes and effects.

You will analyze the performance of a chosen stock over the past year and predict its future trend.

Your task is to develop a presentation on the importance of diversification in a stock portfolio.

You will research a well-known investor and summarize their investment strategy.

Your task is to simulate a week's worth of stock trading and report on your gains or losses.

You will compare and contrast two different stock market indices, explaining their differences and similarities.

Your task is to create a glossary of key stock market terms and present it to the class.

You will write a reflection on how understanding the stock market can benefit your personal financial planning.

Your task is to interview a financial advisor or stockbroker and summarize their insights on successful investing.

